

Play by Play Session 8

Featuring Judith Offer's

The Beauty Myth

Sunday January 27th 2-4pm	@	Brooklyn Preserve 1433 12th Ave Oakland 94606
---------------------------------	---	---

Please join us for a table reading and discussion of this new musical* by Judith Offer and Skye Atman. Light snacks provided!

* We will be reading the libretto, though songs are available to listen on a demo CD

 In the event the day's high is less than 62 degrees, we will meet at a nearby location:
770 Longridge Rd
Oakland 94610

The story of THE BEAUTY MYTH is of an especially beautiful Mexican-American girl, Mariposa, living in the Mission with her parents and two sisters. When a local clothing designer "discovers" her and offers her work, Mariposa ends up going to New York, getting pressure to become a full-time professional model. Many adventures ensue. The theme we are discussing is the effect of the American stereotype of beauty on all women who don't fit it.

