

Play by Play

-Session 10-

by
Robert Alexander

I Ain't Yo' Uncle; The New Jack Revisionist Uncle Tom's Cabin is a re-telling of Harriet Beecher Stowe's infamous abolitionist novel. Here, old stereotypes get to meet their creator; as Uncle Tom, Topsy and Eliza put Harriet Beecher Stowe on trial for not only perpetuating negative stereotypes, but also for "failing to get their story right." If Uncle Tom's Cabin was the novel that helped start the Civil War, then I Ain't Yo' Uncle reminds us that the war for equality in Trump's America still continues.

Brooklyn Preserve

1433 12th Ave, Oakland

2-4pm

Sunday, March 31, 2019

We are a free program thanks to the Puffin Foundation. To find out how your play can be read, please contact Judith at joffer@juno.com