We read plays aloud and discuss each play. Attendees are invited to participate or simply listen. There is no charge. Unfortunately, our theatre is not accessible; there is a long flight of stairs.

Would you like to have a play read? We will be doing readings on the fourth Sundays of March, April, May, and June. We are particularly looking for good parts for women, and plays with at least two ethnic groups. We are reading only one-acts at this time. We hope to present a production of several one-acts in September of 2020.
