THE EXHIBITIONIST

by

Leslie Friedman

and

NOT TOO KOSHER

by

Judith Offer

Two different one act plays, each one a woman and man with a romantic history, meeting for lunch. (Each one about 15 minutes, one serious, one funny.) Come and watch, discuss them with us, then go home and write one!

2:00 on Zoom

If you would like to attend, contact Judith at joffer@juno.com for the link.

Judith would like to find a couple about 60, who live in the same house, to read the parts. Is there anyone on this list who fits that description? Please contact me! I also need a male waiter, 40-60. You don't need to live with the couple!

Next month we will have a musical libretto on a pandemic theme, by April Hirschmann. Would a reading help you with something you are working on? It doesn't need to be "finished". We're a working group, not a performance group.
